“ Sure loved this precious little lady so full of love and God's grace. Always smiling, always loving, always eager to help in any way she could possibly be. First thing I thought about when Pastor announced her homegoing was our precious Sis. Lois with tears streaming down her sweet little face as she opened her eyes and saw Jesus and off she went, dancing about, not all bent over and so fragile, but dancing upright in her glorified body; free from all pain and discomfort as she fell at the Savior's feet and what a celebration of rejoicing continues as she reunites with all her loved ones already there. So my prayers are with all the family left to mourn her loss but treasure all the precious memories she left with you all. Because Soon- Soon we will all reunite with her and Jesus on that Glad Reunion Day! My love and prayers are with all of you! Betty Chapman
