“ My love and Prayers go out to you, Ricky was a loving person who would do anything to help you. He loved kids and all the kids loved Ricky. Some of my fondest memories is him at Davis Elementary. Ricky and Sharon was so much apart of that school and always fun and ready to get things done. They are my family. I'm truly blessed to have had Ricky in my children's life and my life. Ricky was a very great role model for my son and Jordan, as well for all the kids. He will be greatly missed.

“ Rickey, though we never met in person, you were one of the nicest people I've met. My wife and I will never forget that the first thing you'd ask when we all got on, was how is she doing. You were a great teammate, and we'll keep your memory alive. Proud to have been in VETS with you, Semper Fi Marine. Carl Cusumano aka FM.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Rickey in person. I had talked with him on the phone for the past 10 years since he was my Rickey's best friend! I had the honor of having a great conversation with him on Monday, Dec. 2nd. Rick wasn't home so Rickey and I had a great conversation. I can't express in words how grateful I have always been of Rickey's friendship with Rick and I. Especially with my Rick. He was always a phone call a PS3 and PS4 voice to support my Rick with anything he had going on. I feel like we have been so close to Rickey, Sharon and "his boy" Jordan all these years. Our Lord has taken an earthly Angel home, although we rejoice in his going home and no longer in pain, we will always miss him until we see him again in Heaven.

“ Rickey York was my best friend we never got to meet face to face until 2 days before he passed away. Our friendship was brought together by our other best friend Randy also known as 1Sfg when we were asked to join the Veteran's Group on ps3 10 years ago the Vet's group was a tight Band Of Brothers. We talked to each other nearly every day on the game or the phone. We all helped each other by giving each other moral support. Rickey York will be greatly missed by his many friends. His voice and laughter could be recognized over all others. I feel a loss already, although we know he will be home with the Lord and his family. So Semper Fi Cpl. York until we meet again your friend Rickey Kilgore.
