“ It is been my pleasure knowing Al Beaudoin for many years, while living in Trenton and have always considered him a friend. He enjoyed meeting up with some of his old buddies for morning breakfast, discussing whatever was in the news, weather or problems of the day. He enjoyed fishing with some of his buddies, but especially with his best friend and wife Claudie Beaudoin. They have spend 34 years together, loving each other, always faithful in marriage, always there for family and friends. My sincere condolences the entire Beaudoin family.
