“ To Melinda, Greg, Mrs. Quarles, and extended family: I'm so very sorry for your loss. My memory of your father and husband,....He was truly a man of God. He was so kind and generous. Remembering the camping trips and the many times I stayed at your house.....He always made me feel right at home as if I was part of the family. He always made me laugh. I never heard him once raise his voice. We were all blessed to have him in our lives. In my opinion, he was the best role model as a father and husband one could have. Ultimately, he impacted my life in a positive way...It's not always the big things we view or remember, it's the little things that matter.....With much love and gratitude...Wanda Gail Inman Bryan
