

Becky Lynn Summerford

February 18, 1980 - October 4, 2021

Becky Summerford, age 41 years old, was a lifelong resident of Dade County, member of Trenton First Baptist Church and a graduate of Dade County High school.

In her life, Becky loved and showed compassion for anyone that crossed her path, even if it was for a couple seconds and she never spoke of anyone else in an unkind way. The Lord gifted her with a forgiving heart and a passion for praying for the sick and needy if she did not have the means to help them.

Her family and friends will remember her smiling face, uplifting attitude when they were down and her listening ears. Some of the comments presented from her friends and co-workers were:

she always had a smile or was there for you when you needed a shoulder; she was perfect with a heart of gold - happy and positive; she was an angel, she was a light.

Becky passed away at her home in Trenton on October 4, 2021, where she lived with her mom (Pam Hurd), step-dad (Jesse Hurd) and brother (Shawn Hurd). Becky did not have children and she never married and leaves behind her dad and step-mom (Daniel and Fabi Summerford) of Fyffe, AL; three sisters Stacy (Harold) Daniels of Trenton, Michelle (Jon) Bethune of Fyffe, AL and Gina (Daniel) Valencia of Fyffe, AL, and two step-brothers Travis (Chasity) Hurd and Troy (Zohreah) Hurd of Crossville, TN. Becky also had 5 nephews Tyler, Nic (Robyn), Zac (Graycee), Tanner and Talon and one niece Abigail and another one on the way. Becky also leaves a large circle of cousins, aunts, uncles and friends from her former employment at Walmart that she loved dearly.

Graveside services will be held Friday, October 8th at 1:30 p.m. at Lake Hills Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends on Friday from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA
