“ Very sorry to hear. I really never knew my cousin Belinda as I moved from home at an early age and did not have a chance to attend family reunions in Owensboro, KY. My sympathy to Peggy and the rest of the family. Jane Ayer Mantini

“ I am so sorry to learn of Belinda's death. She was one of my cousins, as her father and my mother were siblings. I remember family reunions with your family there and when we could, some family member would drive us to Evansville to visit. Belinda was always so sweet and kind, she would share her toys, and loved having us eat with all of you.

She is now in her "father's house of many mansions", where He has prepared a place for her. She will rest there eternally, surrounded by love.

“ In the mid-60’s Belinda and I had after school jobs at a drive-in restaurant as carhops. During this time she and I adopted a cute term of endearment for each other that brought and kept our hearts close until the miles between Indiana and Georgia pressed between us. It will be sweet and beautiful when neither miles, nor time will separate us. In that moment with smiling we will, once again, tell each other, “oowee”.

Owen Small, Belinda’s little brother.
