“ I met Billy when I started in the tire business in 1993. We worked together every day until his passing. Billy was the one guy that no matter what was going on in everyday life he could always make me laugh. He was a devoted employee that rarely complained and always was ready to do what was asked of him. I will forever miss his greeting every morning of "hey baby" that got the day started right. Billy wasn't perfect but what made him Billy was that he never pretended to be. Rest in peace my friend and for the final time.. Go Vols!
