“ Bonnie Chandler Cooper

“ The sweetest memory I have of Bonnie is seeing her kneeling with my child and leading her to the Lord. For that, I will be eternally grateful.

There are many other memories too ...like the gingerbread houses made of graham crackers that she helped Bethany and Leslie make. And the story she loved to tell of visitation with Bethany and friends (all at the ripe old age of eight to ten, probably). They were singing and Bonnie told them they should get a bus and start touring. Leslie got quiet then said “I don’t think my Mama and Daddy will let me go.” Bonnie got a kick out of that!

I know y’all will miss her so much, but her suffering is over and she is with the One she has served all these years. Also she’s with those loved ones gone on before and y’all know foremost in my mind is Andrew.

The whole family is in my prayers, even though I don’t know the generation after John’s kids. But what I do know is that your Grammy loved you all.
