“ I have such wonderful memories of my baby sister. When she was little I remember how she could run through the house and run under kitchen table and out the other side without even ducking her head! She was always on the go from then on! She was a good friend as well as my little sister. She loved helping others in need and was always there for her family! She loved the Lord with all her heart. She had a great sense of humor and I loved hearing her special laugh! Until we meet again in heaven, dear sister....
