“ Ed was such a great person and neighbor. He always made sure to come by the house with some fresh vegetables from his garden. We would always catch him on his back porch asleep. We would have to shout out to him and tell him he's going to get a sunburn if he falls asleep. He always said "It's good for me" and laughs. Ed you will be missed. We will see you again soon. Sending prayers to the family.

Ed was a good friend of mine. Me and my husband had the privilege of going to his house and visiting with him and his wife veronica for several hours a few years ago. We enjoyed talking about old times and old friends we had worked with throughout the years. He will be missed but I thank God he is no longer suffering to breathe. He's in a far greater place than we are. May God bless his family.
