

Charles Raymond Howard

June 20, 1932 - August 27, 2022

Charles Raymond Howard, 90, of Trenton, passed away on Saturday, August 27, 2022 at his home.

Mr. Howard was a veteran of the U.S. Army, 2nd Infantry Division, Artillery, during the Korean Conflict. His passion was tinkering around on some project he was working on or working in his yard. Our dad taught us to work hard, love each other, and to always be there for each other. He loved his Carver family along with their spouses like they were his brothers and sisters. He also loved his nieces and nephews and their children deeply. He was preceded in death by his parents, John Raymond & Janie Irene Hicks Howard, & brothers, James Hale Howard, Kenneth Gordan Howard & John William Howard.

Survivors include his loving wife of 70 years, Louise Carver Howard; sons, Bobby & Tony Howard; daughter, Carmen Howard (Charles) Godsey; grandson, Brently (Melanie) Cravey; great-grandchildren, Kaylee (Matt) Shull, William, & Priscilla; second great-grandchildren, Samuel & Carmen; grandson, Eric (Jamie) Godsey; great-grandsons, Brycen, Maverick, & Mason.

“ We had many enjoyable nights and weekends playing pinochle. Raymond was a great player and would rag you to death if you made a wrong play. Then he'd laugh at you. He loved books and music. Always up to date on political issues. And so enjoyable to be around because he was so smart and funny. One of the finest men that ever lived. We will miss you forever. Your sister-in-law, Bobbi
