“ Thanks for always being a light and true when many others would have turned and ran. Rest in peace brother. 🙏

“ July 12th was the day Cody came into my life and turned my world upside down. 6 months and not one day went by without talking, laughing, bickering about the game we played together and 5 days of the most magical time I've spent with a person. I will be forever grateful to the man that broke down my walls and showed me what it truly felt like to be loved and whole heartedly loved back because that was what he deserved. He touched people's hearts without even meeting them, made them laugh at his crazy talk but feel cared for with his genuine concern for their well-being. I don't think Cody even realized how much he meant to sooo many and he will be missed everyday. Forever and always boo boo I love you more 🥰😊❤️
