“ I have a lot of good memories with Jack. Car shows, fishing trips, cabinet shop talks and some nice porch time. He was always easy to talk to and about as genuine a person as ever walked the earth. I should have visited with him more. Jack will be missed but remembered with fond memories and smiles about good times.

“ Jack and Vera Sue, his favorite cousin ;) are re-united! Jack and Joyce were so good to my aunt Vera Sue Reagan after Uncle Ed passed away. They were always there for her and that meant the world to her. It was during this time I got to know them on a personal level, and Jack was a great man. His love and devotion to his family is deep. He will no doubt be missed by everyone who knew him. The world shines a little less brighter without him.

“ Jack and Joyce were our neighbors for many years, and I also remember his parents. Both Jack and his dad built cabinets for me and my parents. So sorry for the family's loss!

“ Jack and Joyce have been our neighbors for around 40 years. Besides Jack being a great neighbor, he was a great friend. Jack and Bruce shared similar interests such as cars, fishing and boats. Bruce and I shared trips over the years with Jack and Joyce along with gatherings at their home. Bruce enjoyed going on fishing trips with Jack and family to Kissimee. We enjoyed having conversations and coffee on their back porch while listening to Jack tell interesting stories from long ago. We always enjoyed Jack's company. We will truly miss him. Our love and heart goes out to Joyce. May God bring great comfort to all of the family. With love Bruce and Helga Day.

“ Jack and I (Judy White Fry) were friends, schoolmates and teenagers together. He was a popular member of our class. We went our separate ways when he chose to go to Kirkman Vocational High School and I went to Central High School in Chattanooga.

My friendship with Jack was renewed. and I was introduced to his sweet, pretty Kentucky wife, Joyce, when we started building a house in Lookout Valley in 2007. My husband, Bob, knew of Jack's skills as a cabinet maker from word of mouth in the valley and hired him to build all of the cabinets, bookcases, and fireplace mantels. After moving in, we shared many dinners together as we gathered around the beautiful island, pull out pantry and other things that Jack and a friend of his had so meticulously built, assembled and installed. Jack, always the gentleman, was quick to volunteer for kitchen duty, pouring the iced tea or carrying out the trash.

Along the way, he, Joyce, some of their friends and family members and Bob and his friends began sharing a twice-annual fishing trip to Kissimmee. Florida. Jack, Joyce and Bob started making plans early and enjoyed every trip they made.

Jack and Joyce also loved sitting on our back porch on a nice day, sipping coffee and other beverages with Bob and me, and telling stories about refurbishing cars, motorcycle adventures, fishing and other zany adventures.

To this day and for as long as we are blessed to live in this house, we will have a daily reminder and permanent memorial to Jack's woodworking skills, his and Joyce's friendship, and the beautiful life he shared with his family and friends. We will always remember him with love and will forever remember his happy disposition, bright smile, and his kind and gentle spirit. Love you, Jack!

“ I am Jimmy Carl Ball. Jack and me worked at Dixie Yarns together. Visited each other with our families on the weekends. I cut Jack's hair (not a barber but cut my children and Jack wanted me to cut his.) He wanted me to give Jason his first hair cut. I left Dixie Yarns and went to Muller Company for a while with Jack's father. I then went on the Chattanooga Police Department. Jack left and went to the Chattanooga Fire Department. Jack was a fine man and will be missed.

I thought that was you. I remember coming to your house when I was a small child. I think I worked with your son at Red Food Store on Broad Street when I was a teenager too. We would love to come visit your church sometime. Thanks for sharing your memories of Dad. He was very special and will be missed greatly.

“ He was the best Dad a girl could ever ask for. I was SO lucky the he was mine.

We were both blessed to have great parents who loved us dearly. We were blessed to be born into a great family with lots of great cousins. Jack was definitely at top of my "cousins" list and someone I was inspired to grow up to be like.. A true man's man in every sense of the word and a smile and laugh like no other.. His personality was infectious.
