“ Mr. and Mrs. Blevins, Dakota was such an inspiration to our campus. I was friends with him for only a year and a half, but in that time I can honestly say he changed me and had such a huge impact on my life. He taught me not only how to accept everyone for who they really are, but also how to love myself. And I never got the chance to thank him for that. He was the most loving and passionate person I have ever met and I will always cherish the times I spent with him. Everyone who knew him loved him. From the long talks we have had, I remember him always saying that his goal in life was to change people's lives. I can honestly say he did just that. Heaven has gained such a wonderful angel. I know he's up there shining bright like the star he is. Your son is THE best person I have ever known. My deepest condolences.

“ Dearest Deanna,
My heart aches for your loss. Dakota was one of the finest young men I've ever met. He was sweet, kind and so polite. It was obvious he had benefited from wonderful parenting.
There are no words to help us understand this tragedy. I pray for you and your family to find peace - one day at a time. I know you live with a strong faith and I pray that will bring you comfort.
God bless you dear friend, Kathy Daugherty

“ Scotty and Deanna
I never met Dakota that I can remember, but all the family always praised him. I know Linda was so proud of him and loved him dearly. It's easy for me to say, "God will get you through this" because I can't imagine the pain of losing a child But remember, this day in heaven Dakota does not imagine what the face of God looks like, he now knows. Our prayers today and forever is for your grief to get better and know in your heart that Dakota was well loved and lives with his heavenly Father now. Love you... Your Aunt Brenda and Uncle Charlie
