“ My beloved Aunt Edna, I have no memory of ever seeing her frown or cry. Although I am sure she did, especially when Uncle Edward went to heaven. But my memories are of her strong personality, full of laughter, married to the man of her dreams. When she looked at me, I knew I had her full attention, with her deep seeing eyes fully on me and I felt so much love from her. My mom, her sister-in-law, had Alzheimers but she never forgot Aunt Edna. What a great reunion they are all having. Soon, we will join them, but until then, we will carry on their legacy. My how you will be so missed! My love and prayers are with you all!
