“ Ethan I only knew you for a short time. The first time I met you was when we came up with a load of stuff to move my aunt in (grandmaw). You came running up to help us. Without your help I would not have been able to do it. You always was a big help to others the way you was with us. You had the biggest smile and proved to everyone what kind of heart you had for others. You never expected anything in return. Thank you for always helping my family aka grandmaw.
