“ Her very nature was that of a care-taker. She lived her life to care for and protect her family with a fierce devotion.

This was Fae Green:

She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

*Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:*

*“Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”*

*Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.*

*Honor her for all that her hands have done,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.*
