

Flora Belle Dean

November 27, 1929 - November 22, 2020

Flora Belle Dean, a lifelong resident of Rising Fawn, GA, passed away on Sunday, November 22, 2020 at her residence.

Ms. Dean was a graduate of Dade County High School, the Edmondson School of Business, and received her B.S. degree from UTC. She became a member of Rising Fawn Baptist Church in 1949 and served as an assistant teacher of the Dorcas Sunday School class. Flora Belle taught school for three and ½ years and retired from Chattanooga Gas Company following 25 years of service. She enjoyed traveling throughout the United States, Canada, Israel, and the British Isles and loved working in her friendship flower garden. Ms. Dean was preceded in death by her parents, Dennis & Blanche Dean.

Survivors include cousins, Lois Huckabee, Nancy Worde, Grandville Prince, & David Russell.

Please feel free to share expressions of sympathy on her online guestbook at ryanfuneralhome.net.

Graveside services will be held on Tuesday, November 24th at 2:00 p.m. at Long Cemetery in Rising Fawn with Rev. Robby Dunn officiating. There will be no visitation at the funeral home.

Arrangements are by Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Flora Belle. She was a kind and considerate person. Rayburn did odd jobs for her, mostly plumbing, over the years, and cherishes the memories of friendship. We enjoyed sitting with her as she shared her life experiences. She will truly be missed!
