“ I was so sorry to learn of Frank's passing. I enjoyed talking on the phone to him, listening to his "war" stories. He and my dad, Roy Whitmire, were in the war together. My dad had an accident in England that resulted in his back being broken in three places...he never knew what happened exactly, and Frank filled me in on the details. I truly appreciated those details. I also appreciated that he had tried to talk to my dad on several occasions once my dad was placed in a memory facility a couple of years ago. I think it made Frank sad to realize that Dad's memory was quickly fading. Frank was a special man...I will miss talking to him. Lynne Cory
