“ We are so sorry for your loss, losing a loved one is so hard. One of the greatest gifts God has given us is our memories of our loved one. These memories are ours, no one can take them away. These memories keep the loved one alive in our heart and our mind forever. They are priceless, and are worth more than anything money can buy. As you reflect on the past, you might cry or you might laugh, or sometimes you will laugh and cry. These memories are personal and you will find comfort in each one. Find love and comfort in your loved ones. Lean on each other for love and support. The next few weeks are going to be hard, Remember the fun crazy times and the wonderful times you shared. Find comfort in your family .Your family is in our thought and prayers during this difficult time.

Love

“ I've known Wade just about all my life. I've always thought of him and Donna as my second parents. Wade and my dad were great friends who met and became friends in Paris Island... The last verse of the Marine Corps Hymn says "The streets of Heaven are guarded by United States Marines" now dad has his best friend standing guard with him..
