“ sam made a wonderful impression the times we spoke. I'm very sorry for the family's loss. I am saddened I won't have the chance to chat with him again. I am so glad however that our paths did cross and I got to know him, if even for just a little while.

“ Sam was a true friend through our high school days and beyond. We had so many great times playing high school ball and celebrating after games, some of which might not have been approved by coaches and parents! We were not always living in the same area, but we managed to stay in touch. I will miss him.

“ Sam became a good friend over the years since high school. We had some good talks, laughs, and maybe even a tear, here and there. It has been a honor and blessing to call him my friend and oh, how he loved his Leah. She was the light of his life and it got brighter after the birth of his grandson. God's plans are always better than ours, though sometimes, hard to understand and we will see him again one day soon. God Bless you all, as you adjust in this chapter of your lives. Love you All!!
