“ Uncle Gerald was a great part of my life from my beginning. He lived with us while he was in high school and was constantly picking at me. At family reunions, he and my twin uncles would grab me up to "babysit" so they could get away from the main part of the reunion. They were probably middle school age at the time. He was wonderful through my teen years and on into adulthood where he assisted with clearing the land for my house to be built. He had a ready smile for his loved ones and was ready with a prank for some of us. My greatest sympathies to Aunt Linda, Danny and Dustin.
