“ Jeanie was my very best friend when I was 14-15 years old. Rick and I lived with her and Cecil. We would get the guys off to work in the mornings, Rick worked in a chicken processing plant, gave them shots of some kind and I think Cecil worked on a farm. Soon as they pulled out of the driveway Jeanie would make up a batch of biscuits, cook a pound of bacon and a large bowl of gravy. We ate every bite of it. I was pg and we would sit and laugh about how miserable we were after eating all of it. Then it was time for us to take a nap.... loved that woman. RIP Jeanie, I love you, see you in heaven. Love Ronda

She was a amazing lady. She helped me get to Georgia when I was in need. Her and I grew a bond and I'm proud to call her my step mom. Yes we want blood but she was like a mom to me but no matter what she will never be forgotten. RIP jeanie your at peace now.
