“ The green candle to me represents the outdoors he always loved. There was one time in Sale Creek Tennessee where we moved to in 1988. His father Johnny was on the road trucking. The two of us had no money, or food left except a box of macaroni. Greg took it upon himself and walked down to Sale Creek right behind our house, and proceeded to catch crawdads. He was 11 years old then. I was so proud of him . We sat watching TV and chomping on crawdads and cheese macaroni.

“ There are so many memories. Ones I will always cherish. Greg. I'm missing you terribly already. I can't believe I'll never see you again or hear your laugh, with all your goofy shenanigans ! You have been like my own child to me and this is really crushing my heart . Watch over your children . No worries , we will make sure the babies feel like they knew you. We'll always tell them about their daddy. The boys know what a wonderful heart their Daddy has and we'll never let the little babies forget. I love you Greg. I'll see you on the other side. Wait at the gate. I'll be there ! 🙏❤️
