“ My sympathy to the family. Harold was a good man, always smiling. I remember his sense of humor, love for his Jo Ann and all the laughs they shared.

“ Brother Harold was my brother in the Lord he was a very special person he always had the right answers when you would ask him things about the word of God. He would always try to answer which scripture from the Bible. He will be missed but if we will all live the way the Lord wants us to we will see him again. Would not call him back for anyting his race is run.
