“ Though we are far away at the current time, we would like to offer our condolences to the Dunn family in the death of a very special woman. Hazel was a dear next door neighbor to us for over 25 years and we could not have asked for a kinder, or more generous friend.

Her love for everyone was always evident...especially her love and caring for children. She was like another grandmother to our daughter Alex and a wonderful friend to me. I will never forget our Halloween evenings together with the kids on a candy run! What a beautiful, smiling face she had! I am sure she has a smile on her face at this moment in heaven. God blessed me by allowing me to know her.
