“ We all have our regrets. What I regret the most when I think of Sonny is that I never sent him my good guitar. Because Sonny loved making music and I have seen him playing old beat up guitars with broken strings and using a pick made from a piece of milk jug. I wanted him to have a good guitar to play and it hurts me now that I never got around to sending him that guitar.

“ I am thinking and praying for all of you. I pray God will give you comfort, peace and strength.
I will always remember Sonny's smile. I hope it comforts you to know he is no longer hurting as he is at home with our heavenly Father. Please read Isaiah 43:2
I love all of you so much - Cindy
