

James Daniel Centanni

April 25, 1938 - August 28, 2018

James Daniel Centanni, age 80, of Rising Fawn, GA passed away on Tuesday, August 28, 2018. He will be forever remembered as an honorable, kind, and intelligent man, loving uncle, fun-loving cousin and loyal friend.

Jim was born in Chicago, IL. As a teenager, he became interested in ham radio operations and held a license throughout his entire life. He graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in Electrical Engineering. He had a passion for travel and even lived in England for 7 years while working for Sykes Datatronics.

Following retirement, Jim continued to travel for pleasure all over the world.

He also devoted his time to numerous charities and mission trips with groups working in South Dakota, Nicaragua and Haiti.

Jim was a lifelong Catholic, and most recently, was a member of St. Katharine Drexel Church in Trenton, GA, where he was also active in the Knights of Columbus, as well as his neighborhood Bible study group. He served as

Secretary and Treasurer of the Potter County Historical Society in Coudersport, PA where he lived many years.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents Daniel and Agnes Centanni, his sister Marion Centanni Sheehan and grandnephew Brett Matthew Figgins. He is survived by 6 nieces and nephews, 7 grandnieces and nephews, 9 great grandnieces and nephews, and many cousins and friends.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 29, 2018 at 2:00 EST in the chapel of Ryan Funeral Home. The family will receive friends 1:00 EST to 2:00 EST on Saturday, September 29th at the Ryan Funeral Home, Trenton GA.
