“ Jim is a valued part of my family, maybe not by blood but by heart. He loved us as his own. He would tell complete strangers I was his adopted daughter, after I lost my dad in 2008 he took us under his wing. He will forever live in our hearts. Prayers for strength during this difficult time. May god wrap you in his loving arms and comfort you during this time. It's Not Goodbye, just a see you later.

“ I feel so blessed to have been friends with Jim Davis. I don't know that I've ever met anyone that loved his family, friends and community more than Jim did. He was just as quick to tease you as he was to lend you a hand. His presence will be missed by so many. The world will be a little dimmer with his passing. Sending our deepest condolences and prayers for comfort to Elsie and the family. ❤️

“ Jim was one of a kind a person with the biggest heart I ever have know. He had a love for his wife and family and community like we will never see again. He was a hero to the many people he helped in Dade county . For years Jim never missed a page out at the fire hall always ready to help anytime, anyway for as long as needed which in my book makes him a true legend. I was blessed to have known him and learned from a truly great man.

A Fireman's Life

*A fireman's life is one big surprise,
Usually he laughs, sometimes he cries.
There's always stress, toil and strife,
Hoping he's good enough to save just one life.*

*His wife understands, when he misses dinner,
If he runs out of church, don't think he's a sinner.
Answering a call, is tops on his list,
Regretting each one he's ever missed.*

*He tries and tries, but can't make us see,
The happiest men, still work for free.
Jumping from bed, fighting the cold,
Knowing what to do, without being told.*

*He rushes to the station, jumps on a truck.
Depending on skill, never on luck.
Putting his life on the line, for an unknown friend,
Hoping and praying, it won't be the end.
"The Bravest Men in the World", the title is fitting,
They all do their best, never come close to quitting.
Next time you see them, all their lights blinking,
Take just a minute, to think what they're thinking.*

*It's a hard job, so show them you care,
And help them out, with a little prayer*
