“ I met James at Dialysis Clinic in Chatt., Tn. where he was going for treatment. He was a special person who talked about the love he had for his sons. He always tried to help others and was kind to everyone. Always rushed to help my sister in law out of the car and keep me from getting out myself. It was a big shock when we learned he was no longer with us. My prayer is that he is with God now. And that peace is his. To the family I would like to offer my condolences and say that James will be missed and our prayers are with you during this difficult time.
