“ I am so very sorry to read of Jamie passing away. I know it has been soo long since I have seen her or your family. Life just keeps us all too busy to stay in contact with dear friends. I have some good memories of her and Jennifer and you and Etcyle back when I first worked at TVA with Etcyle. I remember around 1976 or 1977 when I would have one of your great southern breakfasts on a Sunday morning. While you prepared breakfast, your two girls would sit beside me while I read the Sunday funnies to them and change my voice according to the characters. They were so cute and tiny. I really enjoyed those moments. Then one time I visited your farm in Rising Fawn and Etcyle and I and rode horses with he two girls sharing a third horse. Oh how fast time moves and it doesn't seem to have been that long ago. I am sad to hear about her early departure. My prayers are with her and your family.

“ Jamie worked at my school, Fairview Middle. She loved the kids and they all loved her. Jamie was full of life and always fun to be around. She took several of us to her family home one weekend. We all had a wonderful time. Her family always treated us like their family. I will always have fond memories of Jamie.
