“ I will miss your laugh and I will miss your smile. I thank God for seeing you that one last time. Walking down the road with your favorite two little girls. I will miss your love for chickens and how excited you were when you were with them. My heart is broken. I can only imagine the pain your family feels. I love you Jimmy! Jimbo forever!! ❤️

“ Jimmy was the first of our neighbors to introduce himself to us when we moved up to Sand Mountain and he was all about helping us get moved in to our home. There was nothing that he wasn't willing to do to help us while we settled in to our new place. He had a head full of advice and an infectious smile on his face every time he came around. He was always willing to try food we'd fix him that he'd never heard of before, let alone tasted, and he would get right in there and try it! Though we didn't know him but a few years, we will never forget him. He was a good friend. Rest in peace, Jimmy. Jesus marks your resting place and someday soon we'll see you again.
