

John Richard Stem

May 20, 1959 - August 4, 2023

John Stem, 64, of Trenton, GA passed away peacefully in his home on August 4, 2023. John lived in Georgia the majority of his life. He spent his life as a carpenter, laying floors all across the state of Georgia. John spent his days being a friend and neighbor to many. John was carefully cremated, as he requested, at Ryan Funeral Home.

John is survived in death by his daughter, Amanda, granddaughter, Juniper, brother, Ricky, and those he left behind in his community of Trenton.

John is preceded in death by the greats Haggard, Jennings, and Jones.

At this time, family requests for John to be memorialized through his spirit by fishing in your favorite lakes, thinking of him when the "Dawgs" are on TV, enjoying a scoop, or pint, of Rocky Road, and being kind to your neighbors and strangers alike.

"Silver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away, leaving me lonely
Silver wings slowly fading out of sight"

- Merle Haggard, Silver Wings

Arrangements by Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA.

“ A thousand laughs we shared, count less cook outs and football games together. I was looking forward to this fall when I will be back in north Georgia and bantering with him about UT vs UGA. Big man with an even bigger heart, he will be sorely missed by me, Go Dawgs!
