“Jonie, I am so sorry we didn't spend much time together. We were both so busy. I remember one time at your dad's house I stopped by to visit for a minute and you had me laughing. Apparently you had been to Walmart and found a bin full of sports bras and you had John inside the box finding the ones you wanted. Then you had John buying the bottles of diet Pepsi because if they were open for half an hour it was to flat to drink. I was laughing when someone wanted to play with one of your boys toys and you said that it was THEIR toy and they didn't have to share. Then you looked at me and said her boys were "persnickety" about their toys. I thought I was going to die laughing. The last time I saw you was at Uncle Rogers visitation. If I knew that was going to be the last time I would have hugged you a little more. But I did enjoy watching you and Jaylee with the "AA" song and drinking her coffee, lol, that is a good memory. You also inspired me to get bariatric surgery. I just found out my surgery is on March 4th. Keep an extra eye on me this day, ok? Love you Jonie!

“ I'll always remember that little southern twang of hers and her always calling her brother, Jason, Pig. I haven't seen her in a long time but I will never forget her. Condolences to the whole family.
