

Juanita R Ross

July 17, 1937 - October 19, 2020

Juanita McCarty Ross, 83, of Rising Fawn, GA died Monday, October 19, 2020. She retired after 20 plus years of service from Chattanooga City School Systems where she worked at the Transportation Headquarters on Dodds Avenue. She attended Edgewood Baptist Church and enjoyed her fellowship time at the Dade County Senior Center.

Surviving include her loving children, Deborah Diane Mathis, David (Linetta) Ross, and Rebecca Smith all of Rising Fawn, GA. Grandchildren, Matthew Ross, Katie Mathis, David Lee Ross, Shelby Smith, Abby Smith; Great-Grandchildren, Bryce Ross, Cole Ross, and Lily Hill.

She is preceded by her parents, Clyde and Rettia McCarty, 3 brothers, John David McCarty, Roosevelt McCarty, and Lanson McCarty

A celebration of life will be held at a later date with interment being in McCarty Family Cemetery in Salyersville, KY.

Please share expressions of sympathy at ryanfuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

“ Juanita R Ross

October 09, 2023 at 03:12 AM

MR

“ I want to thank everyone who took the time out their day to write something about my mammaw, she was wonderful woman, stubborn as I can get out, she loved unconditionally, and she wasn't scared of nothing. Mammaw I miss you dearly!

Matthew Ross - October 27, 2020 at 05:44 AM

MR

“ Mammaw, I miss you much! Now I definitely feel alone in this world. You never turned your back on me. Thank you for wanting to be my mammaw! I love you to the moon and back! Hopefully one day I will see you again. Your grandson, Matthew

Matthew Ross - October 22, 2020 at 01:37 AM

WM

“ So sorry for your loss. Mrs. Ross was always so sweet to me growing up. We will keep you and your family in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Wendy (Kirkland) Morris and family.

Wendy Morris - October 21, 2020 at 09:54 PM

BC

“ Mrs. Ross was always a very kind, sweet lady, I enjoyed talking with her, she always had a smile. Praying for the family.

*Dade Senior Center
Barbara G. Castleberry*

Barbara CASTLEBERRY - October 21, 2020 at 09:44 AM