“ Kenneth Tinker was "Mr. American Legion." He loved the Legion as much as he loved his country. There was seldom a day passed by when he wasn't at the post, supervising the cleanup of the Legion Hall, or assisting with the operation of the Post Café, delivering meals and doing various chores that needed to be done. He was a ardent helper in any Legion fund raising activity, and sold almost all of the tickets to Legion raffles. His service was rewarded with his being named "Legionnaire of the Year" in 2015. He will be greatly missed by all of us who knew and loved him.
