

Kimberly Sue McGill

February 1, 1961 - February 28, 2022

.On Monday, February 28th, 2022, Kimberly Sue McGill, loving wife, mother, and nana, passed away at age 61.

Kim was born on February 1st, 1961, in Trenton, GA to Willie and Hazel Christopher. Kim was a graduate of Northwest Georgia High School. On July 7th, 1979, she married Rodney McGill and they raised one son, Aaron Christopher McGill.

First and foremost, Kim loved the Lord. In our eyes, she basically had Jesus on the mainline. Kim was an avid member and Sunday School Teacher at Full Community Gospel Church in Whiteside, TN. She loved to do crafts, bake, and go shopping. She loved her family the most and was so proud of them. Kim loved having big family dinners and going on “the girls” shopping and beach trips. She was funny, sweet, and loved by all. Kim had many friends that were very dear to her, and she spoke fondly of them. The light of her life was her grandchildren, Rory and Thor. Kim had a very special bond with her first grandbaby, her “buddy” Rory, was the best and brightest part of her world. Kim was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her husband Rodney, son, Aaron (Abrianna) McGill, grandchildren, Aurora and Author McGill, sisters, Debbie Rowe and Pam Reeves, and several cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends.
