“ Living next door to his grandparants, Mr. and Mrs. Marona, I remember Larry from our childhood. He always had a smile and loved to make me laugh. I pray God gives you Grace for today, Strength for tomorrow and Courage for the days ahead.

“ Wow, what can I say but WOW! Larry, I will certainly miss you dearly, It has been a long time since we were able to spend time together, how ever I will always remember the times we had. Your family has always been very dear in my heart, and I will never forget the nights and days we spent hunting and fishing together, I am looking at the picture as I type this letter with tears in my eyes, when the big catfish pulled you in the lake on Lookout Mountain. I will miss you so much and our prayers are extended out to your family in this time of mourning. I will never forget those moments that were taken for granted and thinking maybe next week I will try to get in touch with someone. We are not promised tomorrow and should make the best of TODAY FOR TOMORROW MAY NEVER COME. May Gods love and peace be with you, and all of your loved ones.
