“ I am so glad god gave me a chance to meet Larry he was such a kind person and so very polite he had good manners that you don't find in many people today . I had the privilege to be his CNA for almost 5 or 6 years I loved Larry like one of my own family he was so sweet to me and a (little Sweet on me too ) haha ! He began saying I was his wife which was fine with me he always new who I was all the way up to the end . I will miss him dearly he holds a special place in my heart . And Larry, I will hold on to the ring . May you fly high because your one of god's angels . Love Amy .

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Larry was a special man. He would sit next to me at church sometimes, and I will never forget him telling me that I smelled like cookies one day when I was wearing a vanilla bean lotion. Loved that little man!!
