“31 years ago I prayed to God to send me an angel. He sent me Lisa Kathleen Cooper. She is the very embodiment of an angel. God has called her home. She has been a wife to me, Mama to Zac, and most importantly, Memaw to my little buddy, her Munchie. The love that she had for everyone was astounding. She is the most loving, caring woman I have ever known. Anyone who knew her had great love for her. She had a fierce love for us. I consider it a privilege to have known her. She has been the awesome Mama for Zack. She has filled our lives with goodness and love. I love you, Lisa! I will come with you when I’m done here.”

A celebration of life will be held on Wednesday, November 24th at 6:00 p.m. in the funeral home chapel.

Expressions of sympathy may be shared at ryanfuneralhome.net.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 p.m. until the service hour on Wednesday at Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA.

“ I'm so sorry to hear our "Lisa Locket" has left us. She was a dear, sweet, kind and giving person. She was also the cutest and funniest little kid growing up. A "surprise baby" for Aunt Katherine and Uncle Grady, and the light of their lives! She was a blessing to us all. Rest well, Lisa. Sandy M. Whitehouse

“ The first time Lisa meet me she told me she didn't like me because I was to perky in the mornings. That was back in 2005. She ended up being a great and wonderful friend. I will miss her. But she will not be forgotten. Heaven sure did gain a angel Saturday. Can't wait to see you again up in heaven.
