

Martin Landon "Lanny" Haynes

January 20, 1947 - November 20, 2019

Martin Landon Nathaniel Haynes, or "Lanny" as most people knew him, always had a smile on his face and never complained.

Lanny was born on January 20, 1947 in Johnson City, TN and was the son of the late Ben and Margaret Haynes. Lanny grew up in Chattanooga and attended OLPH Catholic School and Notre Dame High School graduating in 1965. He then attended East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, TN before transferring to the University of Chattanooga where he completed his Associates Degree.

At OLPH Lanny met his lifelong friends Andy Nolan, Vic Massari, Jon Keene, the late Johnny Hennen and Laura Hennessey Overmeer. Friends that became family.

Lanny was a family man and his favorite place to be was at home. He loved the Fighting Irish and the Georgia Bulldogs but at his core he was a closet Tennessee Volunteer.

Lanny is survived by his wife of 47 years Suzanne, son Ben Haynes (Heather), Sally Katz (Seth) and Dolores Haynes, brother Benn Haynes (Mary), Sarah Troub (Don), Bonnie Haynes, and his six grandchildren (Harris, Hadley, Emmy, and Thatcher Haynes, Ben and Emily Katz).

A funeral mass will be held Tuesday, November 26 at 11:00 AM at Our Lady of The Mount Catholic Church with visitation preceding at 10:00 AM.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made in Lanny's memory to either OLPH Catholic School or Notre Dame High School.

“ Dear Suzanne, I am sorry for your family's loss of Lanny. My memory of Lanny is standing in line for the Easter Bunny pictures at Bone Appetit for a picture of my cat. People are worrying because they had never had a cat come and did not know what to do. Mozart and I progress to the Easter Bunny who says, "Hello Marty." You are all in my thoughts.

“ What a great man he was. I met Lanny through all his cronies many years ago and he accepted me as one of the Notre Dame friends immediately. No one smiled more, laughed more and enjoyed life more than Lanny. I will miss everything about him. RIP my friend. Make them all laugh in Heaven. Rick Marcus

“ Oh, Lanny! There are just some friends who shouldn't preceded us because it makes this World a more ordinary place. Memories of you from our days in the old neighbor to high school friendships and grown up friendships are crazy and fun and now sad. I pray all your Family (blood and otherwise) know how blessed they were to have you and how many lives you touched along the way. I am SURE Marge is quite happy to have her favorite child back in her arms! I can't say RIP because your Heavenly job will be to spread that great smile all around. Can't be there Tuesday when we say goodbye but you're in my heart until we meet again 🙏 Lynn Whitbeck Hepner

“ Lanny, you were truly, one of a kind and I sincerely believe that anyone who knew you, loved you. You had a way of accepting people as they were. You always had, either a beautiful smile on your face, or that sheepish little grim which made everyone feel special. You made me so happy to have known you. I'll always remember our class reunions and your infamous green hat and that smile. I'll definitely miss your not being there, but, as you always displayed and represented the spirit of ole Notre Dame, I know your spirit will always be there with us as we gather together in the future. To your beautiful family who are grieving over losing you, I am so sorry for their pain , however, I know the wonderful memories you made with them will forever remain in their hearts and there you will always be. You are blissfully happy now, no more suffering and pain. and are Home at last. Heaven has received a Notre Dame Fighting Irishman and an angel of a human being. ((( Heaven may never be the same.))) Seriously,love you ,Lanny. RIP

Lanny, You are one of the warmest, nicest, most pleasant people we have ever known. You made every holiday merrier and brighter with your big welcoming smile and your genuine care and concern. You are going to be missed more than you ever imagined. Rest In Peace , my friend. We love you. Celeste and Wade

Lanny growing up as neighbors was so much fun! Playing tag football, firecracker battles, softball games, and all those fun times on Friday nights when your parents had card parties!! I loved every minute of it. Your smile was infectious and you always made me feel so special. Love you Lanny Haynes.
