“ I thoroughly enjoyed our talks and laughs shared at the back door of the Sheriffs Office. We would share war stories and discuss the events of the day. He always looked forward to his bride coming by with DJ or Christy stopping by when they were young. He was a good friend and stood by me when times were hard always pushing me forward. He was always in my corner bragging about how well I had done and being the one of the first to congratulate me. He will be greatly missed. RIP my friend..

“ I have only met Don a few times so I can't share any memories but he gave me one of my very best friends and for that I will be forever grateful to him. He raised a wonderful daughter and that only reflects what a great person he was. She loved him so much and he will be truly missed.
