“ Ms. Mary was such a joy. She loved visits and told the best stories. She also was a good listener and loved to look at pictures of my travels. I would take the toddlers I babysat over to her house with crafts they had made for her. She made them feel so loved and welcomed. They would beam with pride when she hung their art on her fridge. She will be greatly missed, but I look forward to seeing her again in heaven.

Many years ago I was a home health nurse and visited a family member that Mrs Striker cared for in her home. I always loved Mrs Striker and she was always so nice to me. Since that time I had run into her occasionally at the grocery store and we always chatted for a few minutes. I thought the world of her. Although I don't know her family, I am very sorry for your loss.
