“ Granny was the kindest Woman and greatest Cook there ever was. I want to thank her for being a great mother in law and a loving Grandmother to my Children Cody & Ryan as well as my Grand Daughter Dallas. She truly was a great woman. No one ever went hungry or without anything they needed if she was able to help, she was always there.

She was certainly the Best Cook in Georgia and her door was always open to feed anyone hungry. She taught me a lot about cooking and I am grateful for all of the memories.

She will be missed by many. God rest her soul. I hope she is having a reunion with her family in heaven and she is no longer in pain on this earth.

RIP

LOVE, Kelly Sue
