“ Dear Family,

My heart hurts that I can join you today but due to circumstances we me and Joseph Keith can't be there today, But as you gather to remember Randy Wallin, I'm reminded of the huge smile that was always on his face, a constant presence of joy, even in the toughest times. Randy had a remarkable ability to pull a fast one, bringing laughter and light into our lives, regardless of circumstances. He will always be remembered smiling.

He faced many demons throughout his life, but his faith was unwavering. He was like a walking Bible, knowing the word of God inside and out. Unfortunately, his struggles took a toll A huge toll on his body and the family that lived him so much, And far too early, and they challenged his relationships with his beloved family—his wives and children. Yet, despite the hardships, it was clear to all of us how deeply he loved you all.

I remember when he first came into my life; I must have been around 11 or 12 years old. His presence made an impact that I will always cherish. That smile and sweetness that faded as the demon of addiction always wanted to show its face.

May he now rest in peace, free from his struggles, and may we hold onto the good memories we shared with him. And his beautiful smile.

With love and remembrance,

*Rebecca (Becky) Jones Cruse
And Joseph (Keith) Cruse*
