“ Ray was more than just a client to me—he was a fellow veteran, a man who served his country with honor during Vietnam, and someone I was truly grateful to know.

I had the privilege of helping him with his home, but along the way, I gained a deep respect for the kind of man he was—strong, humble, and full of conviction.

His passing hits differently. There’s a bond between veterans that doesn’t need a lot of words, and Ray carried that bond with pride.

I’m thankful for the time I got to spend with him. He will be remembered not just for his service, but for his character and the impact he had on those around him.

Rest easy, Ray. You earned it.
