“ I’m so sadden to hear of our loss. Reathal was certainly a friend that one would never choose to lose. She always treated everyone with a smile and respect. She was always reliable and caring. She invited me to her home to share the beauty of her Christmas decor and it was indeed beautiful. Her creations and decorations were magazine and awards worthy. The kindness of her heart and John’s will never be forgotten. She has regrettably disappeared from our sight but never from our hearts. Love you forever. Donna Kay

“ When I first met Reathel and she heard I was a widow she seemed to shelter me under her wings. She was so supportive and kind and shared her widow stories with me. She was always such a loving support to everyone in our widowhood. I can't imagine what John will do without her but I'm sure all the precious memories they share will help to get him thru day by day. I will miss you Reathel but I am so thankful you were in my life. Rest in Peace

“ It has been so encouraging to me to read messages from all of the people whom my mother impacted in ways that I would have never known. She lived her life until the last days always giving moments of encouragement, financial blessings, and acts of service everywhere she went. Most of which were done anonymously. I am grateful for a wonderful heritage. We have a wonderful life to celebrate.
