“ I still can't believe you're gone. What a beautiful soul, caring heart and mischievous smile. I hope you knew how many cared and loved you. Watch over us down here, and know that you left a big hole that no one else will ever fill. Love you Ricky.

“ Rick has been friends with my daughter Kat since they were in high school together. During that time he spent much time in our home. He was always very funny and had a very loving, giving heart. Our prayers are with all of those left behind.
