

Robert Issac "Bob" James, Jr.

September 7, 1956 - February 18, 2024

Robert Isaac James Jr., 67, of Powder Springs, GA passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 18, 2024, surrounded by his family.

He was born in Americus, GA on September 7, 1956, to the late Robert Sr. and Eva Mae James. He lived in Butler and Fort Valley, GA before spending the last 40 years of his life in Cobb County.

Bob was a successful self-employed carpenter, specializing in exterior trims, siding, and cornice on many fine homes. He had a true talent for woodwork and construction and took great pride in his work. Bob was the ultimate "Mr. Fix It", and in later years, provided handyman services to many. He loved being outdoors, and most of all, taking his friends and family fishing on his boat on the lake.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 40 years, Sheryl (Stephens) James, daughter and son-in-law, Elizabeth and Nick Bowden, granddaughter Savannah Bowden, daughter Amanda Ebbers, and granddaughter Hailey Ebbers.

A celebration of life will be held in the coming weeks. Online condolences may be shared online at ryanfuneralhome.net

Services provided by Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA.
