“ I just found out today that Ronnie passed away. I've had my oil changed at Goodyear for the last 5 years, and although my interaction with him was little more than him running my credit card for my oil change, I always felt like he cared about his customers. He always remembered my name and was always so kind to me. He will be missed.

“ Ronnie has worked on my family's vehicles for over fourteen years. He always took great care of us. He would even follow up to make sure everything was OK because I live out of town. Ronnie had a great smile and laugh – he will be greatly missed. I pray that God's peace, grace, love, and strength will be over all of Ronnie's family and friends.

“ I'm sorry for your Loss, Mr. Ronnie has worked on my truck several times recently and we just talked about a couple of weeks ago him needing to get some rest because my truck always seemed to whip their butts and they would always have to keep it a couple of but Mr. Ronnie was always saying this truck will not leave her until it is fixed right and he gave me a ride to get a rental car, and we laughed all the way; I will surely miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
